

Free energy from Simply Energy

March 26th 2010

Glen Waverly mum Jane Chodziesner is the latest lucky recipient of a Golden Bill from Simply Energy.

Opening her energy bill was exciting for Jane this quarter. There was a Golden Bill inside which meant she didn't have to pay a cent for her $480 quarterly energy bill.

"It couldn't have come at a better time for me," Jane said. "This is really going to help me out at this time of the year.

"For a family of 6, that is a week's worth of food shopping for me."

The Golden Bill is a unique promotion from Simply Energy, which was first introduced in 2009. Every quarter, Simply Energy sends Golden Bills to a few lucky customers, giving them their quarterly energy for free.

"Simply Energy likes to keep it simple and make sure customers get an easy energy experience," Simply Energy General Manager Sales and Marketing Paul Inkster said.

"It's what energy should really be – easy, affordable and reliable."

Simply Energy customers should check their next bills. Customers don't have to register for free energy; a golden bill could just come their way. Like it did for Jane.

To celebrate her windfall Jane, an avid Hawks supporter, was presented her Golden Bill from Hawthorn player Jarryd Roughhead at her home on Wednesday.

As the official energy partner for the Hawthorn Football Club, Simply Energy was able to arrange for Jane and her family to meet one of their favourite players.

"It's just our way of giving something back to our customers," Simply Energy General Manager Sales and Marketing Paul Inkster said.
